* Opening Prayer (in union)

In all our weakness and strength, with our youth-filled spirits and aging bodies, we come to be your people, O God.

Strong in faith and eager with questions, singing our praise and whispering our prayers, we come to be your people,

O God. Filled with saintly determination yet mindful of our human limitations, we come to be your people, O God.

Made strong in your endless love for us, we know ourselves to be yours and we come to be your people, O God.

May we truly become your people today. Amen.

Honoring the Saints

Naming of the Honored Dead

(Please feel free to come forward, read name, or/and share the memories, and light a candle as an expression of gratitude to God for those who have passed on, for the life and love shared and for their witness to faith.)

* Hymn

Naming of the Earthly Saint

(Please feel free to come forward, read name, and light a candle.)

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Anthem “In Christ an Inheritance is Ours” Michael D. Costello

✦ LISTENING TO GOD'S WORD ✦

Scripture Reading (from Hebrews 11) Jim Beardsley /Jackie Henderson

Leader: What is faith?

People: Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Reader 1: By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

Reader 2: By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain's. Through this he received approval as righteous.

Reader 1: By faith Noah, warned by God about events as yet unseen, respected the warning and built an ark to save his household.

Reader 2: By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. He looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Reader 1: By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised.

Leader: All of these persons died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth.
They desired a better country, that is, a heavenly one.

People: Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God;
indeed, he has prepared a city ready for them.

Reader 2: By faith Moses chose rather to share ill treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. By faith he left Egypt, unafraid of the king's anger; for he persevered as though he saw him who is invisible.

Reader 1: By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land.

Reader 2: By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days.

Reader 1: By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

Reader 2: Through faith God's people conquered kingdoms,
administered justice, and obtained promises.

Reader 1: Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection.

Reader 2: All these were commended for their faith.

Leader: And what of ourselves?

People: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.
